

Roksana is a finance and operations executive with more than 20 years of international experience across finance, accounting, human resources, and organizational development. She has a proven track record in building and optimizing structures and processes in national and international environments. At Data4Life, Roksana focuses on strengthening the organization's financial and operational foundations to support sustainable growth and impact.

